

I believe part 15 should not be relaxed and the broad band over power line rules not be relaxed. These companies should not be allowed to use higher power until such time they can demonstrate to the experts (academic community and engineers in the RF spectrum field).